ST. CHARLES HOTEL—GEO. TUFLEY, PROPRIETOR.

On Saturday night, about 9 o'clock, the stage running between here and Tehama Railroad depot was stopped by masked highwaymen about one mile from this place, in the same spot it was robbed six weeks since. The officers were at once notified and started in pursuit, and a man, supposed to be the ringleader, was arrested about 90 miles from the scene of the robbery, having in his possession coin which was recognized as having been taken from Wells, Fargo & Co's. treasure box. The stage driver recognized him also as the party who stopped the stage six weeks ago.

A PROBABLE DISASTROUS TRAGEDY IS TOLD

by telegraph thuswise, to wit: Salt Lake, December 1.—At Alta City last night the house of Madame Ann Miller was destroyed by fire. In the smouldering ruins the remains of two human bodies were discovered, believed to be those of Madame Miller and Captain Matt Hart, a well known Union soldier. It is supposed that Hart, who lived with the woman, had quarrelled with and killed her, set fire to the house, and then killed himself.
